

Small Do-It Hang Tabs Help Increase Display Options and Sales For Cosmetic Products

If you are looking for a hang tab to securely display your small, lightweight cosmetic product, Do-It Corporation has a variety of options. From simple, small round hole hang tabs to digitally printed, vibrant hang tabs we have products that get your product hanging and noticed.

Hang tabs allow a product to hang vertically, straight, and face-forward toward the customer. By adding a hang tab you increase retail display options for your product and more opportunities for impulse purchases.

We have thousands of hang tab options - clear, printed, and XTR Paperboard. If we don't have a hang tab for your product, we can quickly and easily design one that fits your product and display requirements.

Take a look below at just a handful of ideas from Do-It Corporation. If you see a hang tab you like or need one designed, let us know. We are ready help.
